

The Continuum of Care for Severe Brain Injury and the “Case” of Massachusetts

National Association of State Head Injury Administrators (NASHIA)

Presenter: Laura Lorenz, PhD

Following this presentation, participants will be able to:	Strongly Agree	Agree	Undecided	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
1. Describe strategies for informing and educating policymakers and providers about the continuum of care for severe brain injury.
2. Identify gaps, challenges, and strengths in services and supports for people with chronic severe brain injury living in the community.
3. Discuss the ethics of data and evidence around services, supports and tracking outcomes for this population.
4. Adapt lessons learned around the continuum of care and program decision-making to different state contexts for this population.

Presenter’s knowledge, expertise and experience:	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor	Very Poor
5. Laura Lorenz

Presenter’s teaching approach and content:	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor	Very Poor
6. Laura Lorenz

Delivery of presentation and format: <small>Please rate Presenters effectiveness in enhancing your learning.</small>	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor	Very Poor
7. Teaching strategies were used appropriately for objectives and content.
8. Learning objectives related to the overall purpose of the educational workshop.
9. Webinar presentation format was conducive to learning

Please rate the following:	5 Great Deal	4	3	2	1 Very Little
10. How much did you learn as a result of this CE Program?
Please rate the following:	5 Extremely useful	4	3	2	1 Not Useful
11. How useful was the content of this CE Program for your practice or other professional development?

Please share your suggestions for the following:

What would have made this presentation better?

What topics would you like to see presented in future webinar presentations?

Name/Job Title: _____

Your responses help us plan and improve future trainings. Thank you for taking the time to complete this evaluation.