

Ethical Considerations in Brain Injury Rehabilitation

National Association of State Head Injury Administrators (NASHIA)

Presenter: Maximillian H. Shmidheiser, MBE, PsyD, ABPP-CN

Following this presentation, participants will be able to:	Strongly Agree	Agree	Undecided	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
1. Be familiar with the major ethical considerations involved with brain injury rehabilitation, especially with regard to our responsibilities to people receiving services and their families, our responsibilities to colleagues and the profession, and our responsibilities to society at large.
2. Discuss different approaches and decision-making models for addressing ethical dilemmas.
3. Apply the concepts of bioethical principles to commonplace clinical scenarios.

Presenter's knowledge, expertise and experience:	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor	Very Poor
4. Maximillian Shmidheiser

Presenter's teaching approach and content:	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor	Very Poor
5. Maximillian Shmidheiser

Delivery of presentation and format: <small>Please rate Presenters effectiveness in enhancing your learning.</small>	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor	Very Poor
6. Teaching strategies were used appropriately for objectives and content.
7. Learning objectives related to the overall purpose of the educational workshop.
8. Webinar presentation format was conducive to learning

Please rate the following:	5 Great Deal	4	3	2	1 Very Little
9. How much did you learn as a result of this CE Program?
Please rate the following:	5 Extremely useful	4	3	2	1 Not Useful
10. How useful was the content of this CE Program for your practice or other professional development?

Please share your suggestions for the following:

What would have made this presentation better?

What topics would you like to see presented in future webinar presentations?

Name/Job Title: _____

Your responses help us plan and improve future trainings. Thank you for taking the time to complete this evaluation.